Reporting Concerns

Reporting Concerns Regarding the Care, Treatment, and Use of Animals at the University of Pittsburgh

The Animal Care and Use Committee at the University of Pittsburgh investigates all concerns regarding the care, treatment, and use of animals for research or teaching at the university.

Anonymous concerns are acceptable and will be investigated. Anonymous complaints may be made by phone call to the persons listed below, or can be made using the University’s confidential AlertLine at 1-866-858-4456. Federal laws and regulations prohibit discrimination or reprisal for good faith reporting of suspected violations of standards and regulations promulgated under the Animal Welfare Act.

Dr. Frank Jenkins, Chair Animal Care and Use Committee 412-623-3233 fjenkins@pitt.edu

Dr. Denise Capozzi, Director, IACUC and Education Compliance Research Conduct and Compliance Office 412-383-2009 dcapozzi@pitt.edu

Dr. David Schabdach, University Veterinarian Division of Laboratory Animal Resources 412-648-8166 dschab@pitt.edu

DLAR Emergency On-Call Veterinarian . . . . 412-917-2340

For more information and the complete SOP on reporting and disposition of allegations of non-compliance, go to: http://www.iacuc.pitt.edu/about/report-concerns